SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN

EASTERN STATES

Schurz s Speech

St Louis July 2 —Senator Schurz delivered a speech at the Liberal Republican meeting held at the Temple. In reference to the support of Greeley Schurz said he was not a candidate at all. Nothing attracted him to Greeley but his belief in his honesty and his great ability and opportunity to do what he believed. Nobody need be afraid he would end in the Democratic party. If he did he would be there himself. I believe there would be no Democratic campaign. In regard to the terms of the campaign he urged the necessity of the policy of reconstruction towards the South which should rest in a true manner the States and the great need for civil service reform. In the latter connection he read a letter from himself to Greeley asking an expression of his views on the civil service reform, with Greeley's reply. The latter says that his opinion of the matter is it should commence by limiting the President to one term making him independent of politicians in placing him beyond their reach and putting him in a position where he will need no subsidized support and no hired organs where he can and naturally will select officers and counsellors from those best qualified for the positions

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN]

EASTERN DATES TO JULY 23

EASTERN STATES

Schurz and Grant

New York July 23 —A Herald's Washington telegram says dispatches were received from St Louis last night by the President and members of the Cabinet requesting an authoritative denial of Senator Schurz's assertions that he was approached with offers of patronage to support the San Domingo scheme and that a full and authoritative contradiction of the Senator's story is prepared by the President's friends as soon as the knowledge is confirmed by his arrival from Long Branch

Lowrey s Death

New York July 23 —A Wilmington (N C) dispatch says that the killing of Tom Lowrey of the Swamp Angel gang was effected by brothers of the murdered Col Wishart James McKay and James Campbell. Lowrey was on his way to a political meeting when the avenging party emerged from a hiding place and fired on him simultaneously

Strikers Turning Shoulder Strikers

New York July 23 —A number of discharged strikers yesterday assaulted in a body the Italian workmen employed in their places on Long Island. For half an hour the fight raged furiously when the police quelled the disturbance. There is scarcely a vestige visible now at the haunts of laborers or Trade Unionists. The recent 8 hour movement struggle seems to be totally collapsed

Political

New York July 23 —S T Streeter resigns from the Liberal Republicans and will support Grant

Tom Murphy writes from Long Branch that he believes President Grant himself paid for his seaside cottage that he (Murphy) did not contribute anything toward it at any rate

The Union denies the stories published in some Republican papers that Greeley ever conferred with Seymour relative to selecting any one for offices or that he ever desired any one to get up meetings for him or ever asked any one to try to get him nominated for the Presidency

The Barnard Case

Saratoga July 23 —In the Barnard case to day Josie Mansfield testified that Barnard visited her house in New York several times in 1868 and 186 . She knew of Fisk's giving Barnard's son a present of money thinks Fisk told her that Gould participated and that the amount was $10 000

Alderman Shot

Philadelphia July 23 —Last night Alderman William McMullan was shot in the breast by Hugh Mara a recently pardoned convict and is not expected to recover. The shooting occurred in a tavern adjoining the Moyamensing house, where the anniversary exercises of a company were in progress. McMullan had followed Mara for the theft of a bouquet into the tavern where the shooting took place

Later—McMullen is better and will probably recover

From San Francisco

San Francisco July 23 —Morning sales in the Stock Board aggregated 15,553 shares with a general advance. Sales in the afternoon Board were 13,637 total 29 190. After the Board there were numerous sales at advanced figures. The open Board did an unusually large business. There is a strong upward movement but no excessive excitement. The general impression is that after the grain crop is moved money will be unusually abundant and the general demand for investment will cause a marked advance in the market

Arrangements have been made for consolidating the Baltimore and Baltimore American and numbers of other claims under the title of the Baltimore Consolidated Mining Co, and under this arrangement an assessment of $1 per share recently levied on the Baltimore American aggregating $24 000 will be paid to the Consolidated Company and the stockholders in the Baltimore American will exchange share for share in the new Co

After electing a number of Assistant Professors they adjourned for the proposition to erect a Wigwam capable of holding an audience of 10 000 for the present campaign

San Francisco July 23 —Jacob Butler who ran over a child of Lewis Miller with a truck last evening causing its instant death surrendered himself to day was examined and discharged no blame attaching to him

Edith O Gorman has a large audience at Pacific Hall this evening. Several prominent clergymen are occupying seats on the platform. She went after Col Dudley and Barnes very rough for their part in the late trial and was loudly applauded

The Art Association opened its hall again this evening with a fine attendance

San Francisco July 23 —A terrible accident occurred on Sacramento street between Jones and Leavenworth this afternoon. A party of laborers were cutting away a high bank when it commenced to cave and the men ran. A boy named Thomas Gallagher was buried beneath the bank and the men were returning to dig him out when a second cave occurred and two of the men were buried. Within ten minutes they were dug out but the boy Gallagher and John Coyne a teamster were found to be dead and Michael Garry (laborer) was badly injured internally and one leg broken

The case of the people vs Squire indicted jointly with Gregory and Barbier for the murder of J L Burke is still before the District Court having already occupied ten days. It is thought the evidence will be in to night and the case decided before the end of the week. So far no evidence tending to establish the guilt of defendant has been brought out

History of the Fourth of July

In Lippincott's Magazine for July L A Pollard of Virginia has an article on the history of the Fourth of July which possesses some interesting features. He observes that many claims have been put forth for the real forerunner of the Declaration. The most famous is a formal declaration made by a committee of Mecklenberg county North Carolina as early as the 20th of May 1775. Although Mr Jefferson professed never to have seen this document, yet there is an identity of language and thought between it and his own composition, that Mr Pollard says, with evident sarcasm, offers an instance of honest literary coincidence wholly unparalleled

On the 2d of July, 1776, the resolution of independence was adopted. On the 4th of July the Declaration from the Committee was adopted by Congress attended by the signatures of its President and Secretary, and in addition signed by all the members present except Mr Dickenson, of New York who "refused to sign it," according to Jefferson. But it did not bear the names as they finally appeared on it, and it was passed unanimously only as regarded States. A majority of the Pennsylvania delegation persistently opposed it and it was only the absence of two of their delegates on the final vote that left a majority of the State representatives in its favor. A few days after its passage it was proclaimed at the head of the army at Cambridge and Congress ordered that it be engrossed on parchment and signed by every member. It was not until the 2d of August that this was concluded, and the document completed as it is now preserved at Washington. The first paper signed was not preserved. Here, then, we have three important dates on the 2d of July was adopted the resolution of independence—the substantial legal act of separation from the British Crown, and it was this day that John Adams prophesied would in future generations be celebrated by just such noisy demonstrations as annually take place. On the 4th of July the declaration of independence was adopted, and on the 3d of August took place the ceremony of signature. It may even be questioned whether an earlier date than either of the above might not dispute the honor, as Congress, on the 15th of May 1776, adopted a resolution to suppress the exercise of every kind of authority under the British Crown, and that all the powers of Government be henceforth exerted under the authority of the people of the colonies, for the preservation of their peace, liberty, and safety

Of the literary history of the Declaration there is not much to be said. It was subjected to many amendments and changes, but did not suffer therefrom in character style or unity of the composition, but on the contrary was improved in force and coherence. One fifth of the matter as it originally came from Mr Jefferson, was stricken out. Thirty-one amendments were made to the draught reported to Congress, of these the most were verbal but some went to the sense. Of the latter was the omission of the paragraph censuring the King of England for the slave trade although it is not usually mentioned and the fact that another part of the omitted paragraph condemned yet more violently, and with a special train of language, England's employment of the negroes as soldiers Mr Jefferson describing it as a "fact of distinguished dye in the assemblage of horrors" and then emphasized it in capital letters. Jefferson's temper must have been at fever heat when he wrote the Declaration and Congress could not keep pace with it. He pursued his accusations against the King of Great Britain beyond what Congress was willing to put on record—and they are tremendously severe as they stand—but the Declaration had to be studiously pruned of effections which he had made upon the people of England. Mr Jefferson regarded these omissions as an emasculation of his document, and ascribed them to the pusillanimous idea that we had friends in England worth keeping terms with

A distinction of the Declaration and marking it among all historical events was the plainness and sobriety of the circumstances in which it finally took place on the evening of the 4th of July. There was nothing sensational no pageantry—only the ordinary ceremonies of legislation. The debates must have been but little memorable as tradition has not preserved a single sentence of them. The Congress sat with closed doors and there were no phonographic reporters

Severe Comments

The New York Evening Post referring to a late article in the New York Tribune entitled "The Prof and Party" in which those Liberals would not have dared to publish it a month ago but did so then to secure favor at Baltimore. The Post remarks

The Greeley organ is justified in this estimate by one act, and one act only of the Liberal Republican movement. That justification it may find in the nomination of Greeley by the Cincinnati Convention. Greeley knows and Greeley's organ now confesses that neither of them shared in a single honest purpose, a single pure aspiration, in a single broad political principle with the reformers of that convention ... per ... the Greeley crowd ... their own way justifies all the ... the organ can heap upon them of being thus made fools of they acquiesce in the action of the convention then they richly deserve the ... which his organ pours out upon them

Two or three days ago we quoted from the Springfield Republican and Cincinnati ... their very remarkable and very candid confession that the worst men of both parties the men who follow politics as a calling ... everywhere in front in favor of Greeley ... We do not need to be told ... such men are enthusiastic in his favor. They hope and they believe that if Greeley is elected ... in the ascendancy. If in both parties it is these men that will the power and ... how will ... a party that embraces them all. If the Grant administration has not been able to withstand the Republican rogues how will a Greeley administration be able to withstand the Republican rogues reinforced by the Democratic rascals. While the Republican and the ... confess the danger and acknowledging that the worst men in the country have come to the front to sustain the Greeley nomination they fall back upon the supposed political purity of Greeley himself. But now here comes Greeley's personal organ and opens its vials of contempt and vituperation and sarcasm upon the numbskulls and jolter heads who are such asses as to suppose that sensible practical men are asking for any such nonsense as purity in politics! Gentlemen reformers we congratulate you on your choice of a leader. As for me and my house we will serve the Lord

HAS RETURNED TO PORTLAND

Evidences of His Success while on Puget Sound

[From the Morning Herald]

We notice the return of Dr Aborn who has been paying a professional visit to the Sound country where he has performed a great number of miraculous cures and operations. The Olympia Transcript speaks of him in the following terms. "We call attention to the cards in to-day's paper in reference to the treatment and skill of Dr Aborn. He has been on the Sound but a few weeks, but in that time he has given such great benefit to many of our citizens that it is particularly worthy of note."

A Lady Nearly Blind for 8 Years can now See to Read Fine Print, which is Due to the Skill of Dr. Aborn.

PORTLAND Oregon July 16 1872

TO THE PUBLIC.—FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE afflicted I hereby state that my wife had been afflicted with granulated lids and inflamed sore eyes (caused by the measles) for the last eight years. They had become so bad that she could scarcely see to walk and the lids were inverted so that the eye lashes were turned in against the ball of the eye, which would soon have caused total blindness. One eye was so near totally destroyed that she could only just discern daylight, but now, thanks to the knowledge of DR. ABORN and his skillful operations, her lids are cured—they now raise up from the ball of the eye naturally. The eye-lashes do not turn in against the ball now, but they assume their natural position. This was effected by a neat surgical operation performed upon each eye by DR. ABORN. The granulations are removed and the inflammation cloud and spots are so completely removed from the eyes that she can see to read fine print. We would have applied to the Doctor sooner than what we did but for outsiders trying to persuade us that the Doctor was not skilled in his profession, and that he would put her eyes out. But upon investigation I was convinced that he has never put any one's eyes out but found all his patients and those who had been under his treatment, unanimous in their praise of the Doctor's great success and skill in these delicate operations. I have been living in Seattle W T for the past six years, but have now removed to Kittitas Valley W T

MIRACULOUS CURE

John L Clark, of Olympia, who has been so severely afflicted for years and considered hopeless is now fast regaining his health under the treatment of Dr Aborn. The following is Mr Clark's statement concerning himself

TO THE PUBLIC

For two years I have been severely afflicted with Catarrh Throat, Bronchial and Lung Disease, and Ulceration of the Stomach. Have been treated by sixteen different physicians without any benefit; expended over $5 000; had been given up to die. Two weeks ago I placed myself under the care of Dr Aborn and to my great joy and surprise I have improved wonderfully which all my friends can readily see. I can now eat and relish my food and my stomach is healed. Have gained wonderfully in strength and flesh, and I now confidently entertain hope that, under Dr Aborn's skillful treatment, shall be entirely cured

ANOTHER REMARKABLE CURE

[From the Olympia Tribune]

Elsewhere in our local columns will be found a letter from Mr John L Clark, testifying to the professional skill of Dr Aborn. Read it. Mr Clark is among the best known of our citizens, and the fact of his having been in poor health for some years is equally well known to many of his acquaintances. The testimony he bears to the success of the Doctor's treatment in his case is of no doubtful character, and should add largely to the reputation of the latter as a physician

EYES TREATED

[From the Olympia Tribune]

This morning Dr Aborn performed a neat surgical operation upon the eyes of a lady from Seattle—Mrs St ...dy—who we are informed has been nearly blind for ten years. By this operation and the Doctor's skillful treatment she will have her eyesight perfectly and permanently restored. He also performed a similar operation upon Mr Barnes a resident of Tumwater with a like happy result.

ANOTHER EDITORIAL FROM THE OLYMPIA DAILY TRIBUNE, JULY 5.

Drawing to a Close—The visit of Dr Aborn. To-morrow will be his last day in Olympia. During his brief sojourn in our midst he has effected some miraculous cures and performed several surgical operations the success of which have materially augmented his reputation for skill. The persons who have been relieved by Dr Aborn will gratefully remember his visit to the Sound, which it is hoped he will soon repeat.

W[illegible] M[illegible]NING [illegible]

A Clear Record

[illegible] the Democr[illegible] [illegible] since the[illegible] [illegible] of the state[illegible] [illegible] the debt by the present [illegible] stra[illegible] up to the first of the present month was $[illegible] With each monthly statement a table is furnished showing the reduction each month since March, 1869. The aggregate makes the figures above given. But the Herald holds Pacific Railway bonds and [illegible] not give credit for cash in the Treasury. Making these charges it says that the debt has been reduced by the sum of $[illegible] only [illegible] that [illegible] Railway bonds and cash in the Treasury were deducted by the Secretary in his statement of the indebtedness when Grant came in. This being the case it follows that they should be deducted now. Since Grant came in the following bonds have been purchased and destroyed:

Five-Twenties of 1862	$[illegible]
Five-Twenties of March 1864	63 [illegible]
Five-Twenties of June, 1864	[illegible]
Five-Twenties of 1865	[illegible] 160
Five-Twenties of 1865	102,018 [illegible]
Consols of 1867	83,510 [illegible]
Consols of 1868	3,069,300
Total	$271,[illegible] 150

To this statement should be added securities past due, which have been redeemed, and redemption of sundry other funds, which carries the aggregate of reduction up to $333,976,[illegible]16 [illegible]9. The annual interest charge is now $22,401,087 less than when Grant became President. The Herald can make nothing by an attempt to falsify so clear a record. Its method is to deduct from the debt as it stood in March 1869, the Pacific Railway bonds and cash in the Treasury, for the purpose of making the debt show as small an aggregate as possible when Grant came in, and to add these bonds and cash in the Treasury to the debt as it stands now, so as to make the aggregate show larger than it really is. It is a trick of which our neighbor ought to be incapable.

The Party of the Name of Matlock

The party of the name of Matlock in Douglas county, who has scored up Oregon for Greeley, writes to the Herald a savage communication in response to a paragraph that recently appeared in the OREGONIAN. He snappishly declares that he did not leave the Republican party because he could not get the nomination for Prosecuting Attorney, and adds:

> You would have it appear that it was the duty of every Republican to support Grant & Co. including brothers-in-law, Custom House officers and all the measures of a weak, selfish and peculating administration, merely for the privilege of being beaten for a small office by party tricksters.

Here is a confession of the fact we alleged. The party of the name of Matlock was too much blinded by rage to perceive the force of his admission. Being "beaten for a small office" is the ground of his complaint. He says in the next paragraph that he "owes the party nothing, since the party has "passed into the control of a swarm who hold all the offices." Still harping on the "offices." It is evident what ails the party of the name of Matlock. His complaint forms the basis and groundwork of the Greeley movement. The party of the name of Matlock professes not to have known that he was "selected" as a delegate to Cincinnati, and that Jasper Johnson took his proxy. That story might do to tell in the Herald, but it won't pass in Douglas county. The party of the name of Matlock winds up with what he deems a crushing blow at the "army of officeholders," and the editor of the OREGONIAN in particular. Of course it is a mark of disgrace to hold an office and perform its duties acceptably, but highly honorable to be an importunate and persistent office seeker, to change your political faith when you do not happen to get what you want, and to take up with any party which you entertain a hope will give you something. That is honor, that is virtue, that is an evidence of unselfish patriotism, after the example set by the party of the name of Matlock.

Trying to Wriggle Out of His Record

Mr Greeley stands in the position of a man who first encouraged the Southern people to rebel, telling them it was their right, and who afterwards cried out for the most bloody vengeance upon them. Harper's Weekly in a recent issue presented a powerful cartoon by Nast designed to illustrate the following, which appeared in an editorial in the Tribune in time of the war:

> When the rebellious traitors are overwhelmed in the field, and scattered like leaves before an angry wind, it must not be to return to peaceful and contented homes. They must find poverty at their fire sides and see privation in the anxious eyes of mothers and the rags of children.

This passage every one perceives [illegible] fectly devilish [illegible] the New [illegible] But the Tribune had the hardihood [illegible] that it had appeared [illegible] cused Harper's [illegible] Times came forward [illegible] which it had appeared [illegible] Greeley that he will find [illegible] hard to wriggle out of, and [illegible] that he can do it sticks [illegible] the shirt of Nessus.

It is pointedly said that the tactics of the Greeley party, as far as they have yet developed, may be expressed in one word [illegible] "Never," remarks the [illegible] in this connection, "since the world [illegible] has there been such an organized [illegible] ceasing exhibition of brag as [illegible] the Greeley campaign. Counties [illegible] unanimous and States as [illegible] nent men who have no more idea of voting for Greeley than for [illegible] quoted as so eager in his support [illegible] with difficulty restrain [illegible] ber. The Journal further says [illegible] a political [illegible] is effective, but [illegible] paign by that [illegible]

The Herald professes [illegible] Republicans in [illegible] will vote for [illegible] [illegible] professed [illegible] number who will [illegible] Democrats [illegible] then and [illegible] foundation it will [illegible] When the rains descend and the floods come [illegible] thing that [illegible] sands [illegible] will be swept away [illegible] withstand [illegible]

Bismarck and the Papacy

The New York Evening Mail observes that the official organs of the Imperial Government of Germany now reaching this country [illegible] account for the attempt made by Bismarck to control the election of the next Pope. The [illegible] which the Pope or [illegible] reads every morning, and which [illegible] his views, says that the [illegible] knows that the Pope [illegible] authorizing the Cardinals living at the Vatican to elect his successor [illegible] the Jesuits [illegible] It says that they have already [illegible] a prominent member of the Society [illegible] to succeed him. The North [illegible] says the journal in question, will the Imperial Government of Germany [illegible] such an outrage to be [illegible] The Bishops in Germany are now the absolute subjects of the Pope. They pretend to believe in his infallibility. Hence they arrogate to themselves the right to violate any public law of our country if he bids them so to do. This state of affairs would become intolerable in case the present Pope should be succeeded by one of those enemies of modern society, the Jesuits. Let the Vatican beware. The time when its insane arrogance will be checked is at hand.

This energetic language of the official organ of the German government leaves no doubt of the determination of Prince Bismarck not to allow any Pope to be chosen except a man whose character and antecedents are a sufficient guarantee that he will confine himself exclusively to his ecclesiastical duties and abstain from meddling in politics.

The struggle with the Vatican, however, will be no easy one. Its principal organ, the Voce Della Verita, throws down the gauntlet to him whom it calls "the impious, God-defying enemy of religion," and declares that the German Empire will not be allowed to influence the election of the next Pope in any manner whatever. "The present German Empire," says the Papal organ, "is not, as its mouthpiece impudently asserts, the heir of the Holy Roman Empire."

There will then, says the Mail, "be war to the knife between Bismarck and the Vatican, and the nineteenth century may again witness that which has never occurred for centuries past—the existence of two Popes. Of all the bold steps which the great German statesman has taken during his eventful political career this open attempt to say who shall be the next Pope, is certainly the boldest. The result of his struggle with the Vatican will be watched with the keenest interest."

A Story Exploded

It was telegraphed out here that Gov Hoffman of New York, presented in the Baltimore Convention a petition of fifteen thousand Germans of New York City praying for the nomination of Greeley and Brown. The Staats Zeitung, the great Democratic daily of New York (but which doesn't support Greeley) says that Hoffman was willingly imposed on, and that nowhere near fifteen thousand names were obtained to the document. It adds:

> We do not want to call the attention of our readers to the lying assertion of the address that the gentlemen who attended the Fifth Avenue Hotel conference pretended to act as representatives of the Germans in this country, nor to the other assertion that the nomination of Greeley and Brown had been enthusiastically hailed by the overwhelming majority of the German voters, and would be most cordially supported, for to tell falsehoods of this kind politicians consider a sort of poetic license, the responsibility for which does not arouse any conscientious scruples.

The Freeman's Journal, a Catholic paper of New York, says of the adoption of Mr Greeley as the Democratic candidate: "Taken all in all this is one of the most deplorable 'break downs' that the political history of the world, so far as truthfully written, has ever seen. If Catholic theology did not teach us that a 'republic' depending on free electors, was a legitimate form of government, and good so long as the electors were fit to govern themselves (see St Thomas, passim,) we would think that God Almighty was making fun of Americans for thinking they could do without a king."

We have it from information that comes reliably, that L F Lane, one of the candidates on the Democratic electoral ticket in this State has withdrawn, and that he has notified the Democratic State Central Committee of his declination. The reason given is that he cannot support Greeley. If this information be correct there will yet be a place on the ticket for Jasper Johnson.

HILLSBORO CORRESPONDENCE

HILLSBORO, [illegible]

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

Washington county has now put on her finest dress. Immense fields of golden grain wave everywhere, while freshly mown meadows testify that the [illegible] has not been withheld [illegible] [illegible] The building of the west side railroad has supplied a long [illegible] felt [illegible] means of transportation [illegible] wagon [illegible] ness and expense of transportation [illegible] hundreds of broad acres of prairie land have been thrown out to pasture. It is not important [illegible] as some writers have it, to the loneliness of the old Oregonians. It is very easy for persons who come from the East to this beautiful land of ours to sit down and send out a long drawn howl against the honored pioneers who with ox teams spent six months or a year crossing the then waste plains to open up this country and redeem it from its native wildness that their children and these same howlers might enjoy its richness in peace. Their days have been spent amid dangers and privations on every hand, and though the by laws of labor may not agree with their constitutions, they have braved all for the sake of the present generation, and their names should be honored by those who eat the fruit of their perseverance.

Freighting is still too high, as well as passage. As it now stands the farmer is hardly justified in making full use of the railroad, while drayage, etc., place pulling in the country far above the prices formerly charged by teams. It is universally accepted by all that when the road is finished to the Yamhill river these rates will be reduced, which will insure double the travel and freight that there is now under the present system, and a greater impetus will be given to the farmer. It is justly estimated that one half of the farming lands in Washington county lies idle to day for want of persons to till them and the high rate of freight. It is true that those lands are owned by the farmers, but they are for sale or rent either, to suit parties desiring to move into the county and hew out for themselves a permanent home. The people of Washington county stand with open arms to welcome to their midst all who select their county as an abiding place, and will do all in their power to help those who help themselves.

Secretary Boutwell in North Carolina

A SPEECH ON THE "BLOODY CHASM"—THE PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION AND THE FINANCIAL POLICY OF THE COUNTRY.

[Raleigh (N C) Dispatch July 1[illegible]]

Boutwell, in a speech at Greensborough, N C, to day protested against the advice to clasp hands across the bloody chasm. It must be filled up. Let it be cemented with justice. It cannot be filled by a denial of protection of native born citizens of the United States in North and South Carolina and Texas. He counselled his hearers not to be seduced by the idea that Democrats are supporting a Republican for the Presidency, and said: "If their candidate would offer what he cannot offer, a consistent life in the past as a pledge of his policy in the future, even this would be without value in the presence of the fact that nearly all his supporters are from the Democratic party. In the nature of things the bloody chasm cannot be filled until a majority of the South accept the doctrine not only that men are equal before the law, but that all men by right are equal before the law. If bitterness once existed it has passed away. One act of justice only remains to be done. The country waits for the evidence that you heartily and cheerfully accord the full rights of citizens under the Constitution of the United States to all within your borders. Give this evidence, and the bloody chasm is closed." Boutwell presented at length the financial policy of the Administration, and claimed that none more than the President will strive to make the Nation what it ought to be—with a general Government strong enough to maintain itself against all enemies, foreign or domestic; strong enough to protect the rights of its citizens at home and abroad; the States with a powerful and complete sovereignty over all local affairs; members of a union indissoluble, and so attractive that a citizen shall not hereafter consider whether his duty to his State or his country is supreme. The financial policy of the Grant Administration was one—First, to secure a faithful collection of the public revenues; Second, a reduction of the public expenditures; Third, to re-establish the public credit and reduce the interest account; Fourth, to reduce taxation, and finally prepare the way for the resumption of specie payment at the earliest moment consistent with the prosperity of the country. He attributed much of the fraud in the revenues to the laxity of Johnson's Administration—his indisposition to enforce the laws in consequence of the conflict between a Democratic President and a Republican Senate. Dishonest men were most successful in obtaining office, as they only could resort to such means as would make themselves favorable to both. "Now," continued Boutwell, "if you contemplate electing Greeley to the Presidency you must contemplate it in view of the fact that the Senate, whatever may be the present opinion of the country, will be Republican for the next two years, and with almost equal certainty for the next four. You must contemplate, therefore, a return of the state of things which existed during Johnson's Administration. You will secure the retention of dishonest men in office and the appointment of dishonest men to office by processes which do not admit of control. It appears that with the same revenue facilities that were enjoyed by Johnson's Administration the total payments on the public debt during the first three years of Grant's Administration would have amounted to nearly six hundred millions, and that on the 30th of June 1873 it would reach the enormous sum of six hundred and fifty three millions." Boutwell expressed a belief in the practicability of continuing the redemption of outstanding six per cent bonds and of the issue of four and a half and four per cents, and said: "The resumption of specie payments will not be due directly to any measure of legislation, but must be the natural result of the existing condition [illegible] affecting violently or prejudicially the great interests of the country. There is but [illegible] measure of legislation, except such as [illegible] the business interests of the country [illegible] facilitate the resumption of specie payments, which is a reduction by law of the volume of paper money in circulation. [illegible] policy the country has not been prepared to [illegible] not am I prepared to advocate it."

Greeley and Tammany

From the N Y Evening Post, July 10.

Mr Greeley never made, nor anybody ever made for him, a corrupt bargain with Tammany Democrats; he is nevertheless the candidate of that party. If his nomination at Cincinnati was not a preconcerted thing, it nevertheless was hailed with delight by the worst rebel element that had gathered there from the South, and which hoped [illegible] anything that promises disorder and disorganization. It was accepted with loathing and disgust by the very few mistaken reformers who could bring themselves to tolerate it, and it was rejected with scorn by nearly all those who meant what they said when they asked [illegible] If Mr Greeley's fitness for [illegible] position he [illegible] by showing what he [illegible] his truth [illegible] journal [illegible] in the country. After [illegible] said [illegible] cannot be said [illegible] there is anything [illegible] Mr Greeley's [illegible] the [illegible] that party which [illegible] government, and the administration [illegible] general government has [illegible] first [illegible] century [illegible] power and to its corrupt [illegible] which [illegible] years [illegible] is a constant threat of financial ruin, is a constant reproach to the cause of popular government, and is a[illegible] not an unanswerable argument [illegible] the world against republics and in favor of [illegible] Those who are now [illegible] risk the return of such a party to power may vote for Greeley because of some personal and selfish [illegible] they are to gain by [illegible] but no man of common sense and common honesty who has nothing to gain [illegible] votes his election [illegible] upon the most [illegible] majority.

The Tichborne Case

The Wellington (N Z) [illegible] of a late date says: "It is not generally known that the claimant to the Tichborne estate was some time ago, for several months, a resident in Wellington, under the name of De Castro. During the trial just completed in London the claimant's career was traced, with the exception of a period of six months, during which he disappeared and re appeared under the name of De Castro. It thus appears that the missing link in his life could have been supplied by means of research in this colony. Truth is stranger than fiction. We may add another missing link in the chain of evidence in this case. The three masted schooner 'American [illegible]' which appears to have been treated as a myth on the trial, was in these seas at the time stated by the claimant. The year previous to the date mentioned by De Castro or Tichborne, she loaded at Auckland with potatoes and general produce for California, where gold had been discovered, and so careful were those on board not to betray the secret that a considerable sum was refused by them for a newspaper [illegible] until they had completed lading. They then supplied the local press with the first intelligence of the discovery of gold in California, and the rush there. It would appear by the evidence of De Castro, that he was picked up by the same vessel and carried to Port Philip, now Melbourne, on her following voyage. The probability is all in favor of the truth of this part of the claimant's statement."

CITY.

How Humane!—A correspondent who evidently has cultivated a fondness for animals of all kinds and yet is as unwilling to have birds devour his cherries and strawberries as to have cats eat up their birds, proposes a plan of protection for garden, bird and cat all at once. The cat is to range the garden at the end of a long chain, while the kittens play about at their own sweet will. The sight of Thomas or Tabby keeps the birds at bay and the chain also insures the safety of the feathered intruders. A practical arrangement of a chain sliding on a wire with a swivel in the center, has been invented. The plan is certainly constructed on the most liberal and humane principles, whether it will be found to operate practically or not. The poor cat is thus converted into a boltless, harmless, but very effective "scarecrow." Fruit growers and "berryists" should try the experiment.

Money Order Offices.—Ashland, in Jackson county, and Forest Grove, in Washington county, have both been created money order offices. The order to that effect, from the Postal Department, went formally into operation on the first of the month, but official notification of the same was not received by Postmaster Wakefield until yesterday. The first money order from Forest Grove was received at the office in this city yesterday. The Postmaster has been endeavoring to have that office created a money order office for some time, for the accommodation of the students in attendance at the Academy there. The order was to have been issued the first of last January, but for some reason was overlooked.

Curiosities.—By the steamer Geo. S. Wright there arrived a great number of rare and curious specimens of Sitkian workmanship. They were collected by the Collector of Customs of that port, Mr. George A. Eades, and sent to Col. I. R. Moores of this city. The curiosities can be seen at the house near the corner of Front and F streets. These specimens of skill consist of various grotesquely carved images of beasts, birds, fish and men, bows and arrows, spears, knives, snow shoes, baskets, etc. Several boxes more of these curious things have not been opened yet, but will be to-day. It is well worth one's time to call and inspect these specimens of wood and iron craft.

Welcome to Senator Corbett.—The friends of Senator Corbett will testify their appreciation of him and his services to the State by a demonstration in his behalf on his arrival here. It is understood that this demonstration will take place on Thursday evening. A meeting of some of our prominent citizens was held yesterday at the Police Court Chamber and full preparations made. All who wish to participate in the public welcome to the Senator are requested to meet at the Council Chamber on Thursday evening at half past eight o'clock. A salute will be fired in his honor on the arrival of the steamer.

Fatal Injuries.—On last Friday afternoon a man named John Welch, engaged at work on the Clackamas quarry, met with severe injuries which resulted fatally, on Saturday. While engaged at work a large stone became detached and rolled down on the unfortunate fellow, who vainly endeavored to save himself. The stone passed over his body, crushing portions of it and inflicting such internal injuries that death ensued the following day. Immediately after the accident, he was removed to the Sisters' hospital at Vancouver.

Wells, Fargo & Co's Agent.—We learn from the Idaho Statesman that Mr. Geo. Greathouse, Wells, Fargo & Co's Agent at that place, has been appointed Agent for Oregon, Washington and Idaho. He will have supervision over all the offices within his district and make them occasional visits, so that he will be traveling most of the time. He will bring his family to Portland to reside. Mr. Greathouse is a reliable and thorough business man, and W., F. & Co. could not have secured a better man for the place.

Mystery Searchers.—We learn that several parties intend to visit the house, alleged to be haunted by the Herald, on the road to the White House, this evening. The object is to trace out the mysterious (?) affair. We shall suspend our breath until we read the Herald's thrilling account of the result, which will no doubt reach through several columns, and be replete with the most intense interest.

Philosophical Apparatus.—There is to be seen in Allen & Lewis' warehouse a large case of philosophical and chemical apparatus for the Bishop Scott Grammar School, which has been more than four months coming from Philadelphia via the Union and Central Pacific Railroads. It will be a very valuable addition to the laboratory of that institution, which is now being enlarged for its reception.

Brought Down.—Wm. M. Bramlette, one of the parties who was arrested near Canyon City a few days since on suspicion of having been concerned in the recent stage robbery, was brought down on the Dalles boat last evening, in custody of Mr. Jas. Cunningham. He will be kept separated from the other three parties until the Grand Jury examines into the matter.

Utilizing.—During the recent high water, a number of cedar and fir trees drifted by the eddy into open space just below the O. S. N. Co.'s wharf. As soon as the water subsided, the trunks were deposited "high and dry" on the old wharf. Some enterprising fellow hired a lot of Chinamen who are now engaged in reducing the trees to good cord wood.

Obsequies.—The remains of the late John J. Sullivan, who died in East Portland on last Sunday morning, were followed to their final resting-place yesterday by a large cortege of friends, including the members of the Portland Hibernian Benevolent Society, of which organization he was a member at the time of his death.

Blackberries.—Blackberries in abundance are being brought in from Vancouver. The crop is reported very fair. One man at that place has raised several thousand pounds of berries from one-quarter of an acre. The yellow jackets are said to be committing havoc with the prospects of the crop, however.

Mill to Move.—The steam saw mill which belongs to the railroad company, at the foot of G street, will close down on Saturday evening next. On Monday morning following, they will commence removing the machinery to the new building, below the West Side depot.

For Launching.—The little schooner [illegible] will be ready to launch in the course of the present week. She would have been ready before now, if the required number of carpenters could have been obtained. Owing to this difficulty, matters [illegible] French and Hawaiian Consulate flags, Wells, Fargo & Co's steamer, and the several flags of the vessels now in port, were displayed yesterday at half mast, in respect to the memory of the late Mr. Flowerdew, British Vice Consul.

Certificate Granted.—A certificate to carry passengers up and down the river has been granted the steam tug Merrimac, by inspectors Jas. Lotan and Capt. Flanders. The application which was made to tow vessels over the bar, was refused by the inspectors.

Track-Laying.—The track-laying on the Oregon Central Railroad is progressing with all possible vigor. The grading has been completed to a point beyond St. Joe, and the track has been laid to Gale's creek, a distance of six miles south of Cornelius.

Released.—Martin Kearns was examined before U. S. Commissioner Wilcox yesterday on a charge of smuggling. After an examination of the charge, the testimony being insufficient to convict him, the defendant was discharged from custody.

Clerical Visitor.—Among the passengers by the Ajax is the Rev. [illegible], an Episcopal clergyman from Hudson, N. Y., who is visiting various parts of the Pacific coast during his summer vacation.

Discharged.—Charles B. Bennett, the young man who was arrested on Monday on a charge of embezzlement, was discharged by Judge Denny yesterday morning, after a fatherly reprimand.

Postponed.—The races which were announced to come off over the River-side race course this evening have been postponed until to-morrow evening.

SCHOOLS

We have before us the two handsomely printed catalogues of St. Helen's Hall, and the Bishop Scott Grammar School, from which we gather several interesting particulars in regard to these important institutions of learning. There were in St. Helen's Hall, last year, 133 girls, and in the Grammar Schools 100 boys. For schools so recently established this must certainly be considered encouraging progress. St. Helen's Hall was enlarged last year for the third time and will now accommodate sixty boarders, with the necessary corps of teachers and the Bishop's family. We understand that it is proposed to enlarge the Grammar School also, by constructing a large dining room in the basement, and by erecting a wing on the north side of the present building. This wing will be 25x60 feet, three stories high, with a Mansard roof, and will have a tower communicating with the several floors of each building. The first floor will make one large school room, the second floor will be used as a Chapel, and the third floor for dormitories. It will be finished in the same style as the present building, and will greatly improve it in appearance. The first cost of these enlargements, without finishing or furnishing, will be $5,000. Bishop Morris pledges to raise $2,000 of this in the East, and asks the friends and patrons of the school in Portland to contribute the other $3,000. Eighteen hundred dollars have already been subscribed by our citizens, leaving but $1,200 to be raised. There ought certainly to be no difficulty in securing this sum for such a purpose. The establishment of first class boarding and day schools here is an enterprise which ought to have the sympathy and co-operation of every liberal and enlightened citizen. Large sums of money have been brought here from the east and already expended upon these schools, which are certainly a great advantage to our city. It appears from the catalogues that of the 233 pupils in these two schools over 80 of them have come from other parts of Oregon and Washington Territory. There is good reason to believe that this number will be considerably increased the next Term. Within the past three years a corps of twenty teachers has been brought here to conduct these schools, and more than $20,000 of eastern funds spent on the buildings and fixtures. This alone would make a just claim on our citizens for aid in further improvements and enlargements. The schools at present are self-supporting, but the most successful enterprises of this kind can not provide for enlargements, new buildings, furniture, &c., out of their ordinary receipts for tuition. While Portland is without doubt the commercial and monetary centre of the northern coast, we see no reason why it should be second to any other in its educational advantages. Indeed there are many reasons why it should stand first in this respect of all other places. And it ought to be the pride of every citizen to make it such. If we wish to attract to our city the intelligence, wealth and refinement of our own and other States, we need, above all things, to establish here schools of a high order. Such we believe these schools we have spoken of to be, and we hope our citizens will be prompt to furnish the amount of money required to complete the proposed enlargement of the Bishop Scott Grammar School. Let its new wing and tower rise up at once on its fair site, with open doors for all who will come.

AMUSEMENTS.

Festival.—By reference elsewhere, it will be seen that an ice cream festival will be given by the members of the M. E. Church (colored) over McCormick's Book Store, this evening. During the evening, some literary exercises, singing, etc., will be introduced. Tickets, 25 cents.

Narrow Escape.—On Monday, as Sheriff Caywood was driving in a two-horse buggy beyond the Tualatin river, his team suddenly took fright and ran off. He was proceeding quietly along the road, when the horses became frightened, and without the least warning to the driver, quickly swerved to one side. One of the wheels ran over a stump at the roadside and nearly capsized the vehicle. The Sheriff was thrown out but managed to alight on his feet. As soon as the stump was passed, by the assistance of Mr. Caywood, the buggy was righted. He still held the reins in one hand and steadied the vehicle, as the ground was very sidling. This enabled the horses to get a good start, and before the Sheriff could check their career, he was drawn over a log and the reins jerked from his grasp. The team ran some distance with the buggy, until they collided with a stump, which capsized the carriage and jammed it all to pieces. In this respect, the runaway could be said to be a "success." The horses continued on some distance farther, having become disengaged. About a half mile from where they started, the runaways brought up in some underbrush. The Sheriff was compelled to borrow another buggy with which to reach this city. Fortunately he escaped with a few scratches.

Two Pugilists!—Two persons who reside in the region and shadow of the Court of Death, having a little private quarrel to settle, which is said to have arose from jealousy of some fair, but alas frail creature, concluded to retire to the suburbs of the city, and, in the presence of a few of their respective friends, fight the matter out, even if it took "all summer." Accordingly, yesterday afternoon, accompanied by some ten or a dozen of their friends, they started. The intention was to go out beyond the city limits in a northwestern course. It so happened that officer McCoy was out enjoying a quiet drive along Washington and B streets. He was ignorant of what was intended to be shortly enacted, and had not the most remote idea that the brace were going out to fight. But these wary birds took their cue in a moment on seeing an officer, and made for the city in double quick time. The crowd also dispersed and took circuitous routes back. Their actions looked a little strange and suspicious to McCoy, but it was all explained when he learned the object of the crowd. The two pugilists concluded that an officer had been detailed to watch their movements, and so the fisticuff has been temporarily deferred.

Exciting Dashes.—Two rather exciting dashes occurred in the city yesterday. A cayuse attached to an express wagon on Front street, in front of Hodge & Calef's drug Store, took a lively dash up Front street to Madison, making pedestrians hustle in all directions and teamsters look sharp to avoid collisions. Away, up Madison street, flew the frightened equine, shaking the dust of his hoofs in defiance at his pursuer, and making 2:10 speed for the Canyon Garden. For all our knowledge to the contrary he may yet be running. In the evening two large, powerful horses, attached to a heavy truck, which had just discharged a load of stone at the Custom House, took a sudden notion to exercise themselves, and away they went. Things progressed at a rattling rate for the space of five minutes or longer, when [illegible] Damage light.

Closing Arguments.—In the Circuit Court yesterday the testimony was closed in the action at law by F. G. McGown et al., vs. H. L. Hannah et al., known as the "Wrestling Joe" case. The arguments of counsel were commenced, Hon. W. C. Johnson, on behalf of plaintiffs, making the opening speech to the jury, after which the Court adjourned till 9 o'clock this morning. The Court limited the counsel to eight hours on each side. To-day Judge Strong and Gov. Gibbs will make the defendants' argument, and Hon. J. H. Mitchell, for plaintiffs, will close the case to-morrow.

Still Out.—The steamer Ajax, due at this port from San Francisco, had not arrived here as we go to press. She will probably not reach here until sometime to-day.

Grand Jury.—The United States Grand Jury will convene at 10 o'clock this morning for the transaction of such business as may come before them.

It does not matter whether you vote for Grant or Greeley you are always made perfectly at home in a suit of Clothes manufactured at the extensive Clothing manufactory of Fishel & Roberts. The new Cutter is giving general satisfaction by furnishing the public with such excellent fitting suits. When passing along First street remember to pay this house a visit. You can depend upon having good attention, buying at low prices and getting work promptly done.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Common Council.

Less smoke visible since the recent shower.

The river is still slowly falling at Vancouver.

Warm weather is threatening to return again.

Gen. E. R. S. Canby is reported to be quite ill.

The Onward brought a very large crowd down last evening.

Clearing and burning timber west of the city still continues.

The funeral of the late Mr. Flowerdew will take place to-day.

Small pox has been exterminated in these latitudes, for the present at least.

Two "bird birds of liberty" can be seen to the rear of the Cosmopolitan Hotel.

The city jail and Police Court will be ready for occupancy by the first of next week.

The city clock fails to reveal to us the light of its welcome countenance these nights.

Sixth street, between Morrison and Alder, is being improved. It has long been needed.

The steam tug Ben Holladay proceeded down the river last evening to tow up the bark Alberta.

Monsieur Montague, Senora Garrett and other talent will accompany Geo. B. Waldron to this city.

For the first time since the late high waters, the freight and passengers are discharged on the lower wharf.

The damages received by Portland No. 1—ferry boat—during the late high stage of water are being repaired.

The thermometer is getting some exalted notions again. Eighty degrees in the shade suited its complexion yesterday.

The moon is on the wane. The flickering and uncertain lamp-light will soon guide love sick promenaders and travelers on their way.

Mr. Emil Bouries, an old citizen of this city, returns on the steamer Ajax. He has resided for the last two years in Marysville, California.

Geo. B. Waldron is expected to return to this city on the next steamer from San Francisco, with new attractions in the theatrical and show line.

Joaquin Miller's poem entitled "Isles of the Amazon," for which John H. Carmany gave the sum of $2,000, will commence in the September number of the Overland.

One butcher attempted to sell tainted meat to another butcher. The purchaser, to get even, puts a head on the vendor of cow flesh, and pays a fine of $5 and costs for that privilege.

Man is a complete, wonderful piece of mechanism, but a marvelously small thing can destroy his equanimity. His knowledge that a single, lonely, unprotected bed bug is prowling about may keep him cursing all night, instead of sweetly reposing in the arms of that mythological bed-fellow, Morpheus.

The Wear and Tear of Life.
The cares, anxieties and misfortunes of life have as much to do with shortening it as disease. They are in fact the source of many ailments and physical disabilities. Nervous weakness, dyspepsia, affections of the liver, disturbances of the bowels, headaches, hypochondria and melancholy are among these distressing fruits. It is, therefore, of great importance that persons whose minds are oppressed with heavy business responsibilities, or harassed by family troubles, or excited by speculation, or perplexed by a multiplicity of enterprises, or in any way overtaxed or overworked, should keep up their stamina by the daily use of a wholesome tonic. Thousands of persons thus circumstanced are enabled to bear up against the difficulties in which they are involved and to retain their strength, health and mental clearness, by the regular use of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Diseases which are prone to attack the body when debilitated and broken down by over-much brain-work or exhausting physical labor, are kept at bay by the resistant power with which this incomparable tonic endows the nervous system and the vital organs. At this season when the heat is evaporating the elements of strength from every pore, an invigorant is absolutely essential to the safety and comfort of the public and is required even by the more robust if they desire to keep their athletic qualities in statu quo. Hence a course of Hostetter's Bitters is particularly useful at this period. It is the very best defence against the invisible diseases of an unhealthy atmosphere. It is the most potent of all preventive medicines, and for all complaints which affect the stomach, the liver, and the bowels, and interfere with the perfect digestion and assimilation of food, it is the standard remedy.

This wonderful vegetable restorative is the sheet-anchor of the feeble and debilitated. As a tonic and cordial for the aged and languid it has no equal among stomachics. As a remedy for the nervous weakness to which women are especially subject, it is superseding every other stimulant. In all climates, tropical, temperate or frigid, it acts as a specific in every species of disorder which undermines the bodily strength and breaks down the animal spirits.

RAILROAD LANDS.
OFFICE OF LAND DEPARTMENT,
Oregon and California R. R. Co. and
European and Oregon Land Co.,
PORTLAND, OREGON, August 1, 1871.
THE COMPANY IS NOW PREPARED TO EXTEND the pre-emption privilege of purchasing Railroad Lands in advance of the same being placed in market to all parties desirous of securing them on the following terms:
The applicant filing in this office a claim in the form prescribed, to-wit:
Pre-emption. date, No. ——.
To the Land Agent of the European and Oregon Land Company:
Sir: You are hereby notified that I have settled upon and improved (description of land) in the county of —— State of Oregon, containing —— acres, and that I claim a pre-emption right to purchase said lands at the Company's valuation in accordance with the following resolution of the Directors of said Company, adopted on the twenty-sixth day of May, A. D. 1871, to the terms of which I hereby fully assent:
"Resolved, That the parties settling upon and improving any of the lands of the European and Oregon Land Company, before the same are opened for market, shall be entitled to the pre-emption privilege of purchase on the same terms as the Company would sell the land for without improvement, and shall be subject to the same conditions of payment, as all other lands belonging to the Company, when brought into market; provided, such settlers shall file in the Land Office of said Company, written application, giving notice of such settlement, and shall accept the privilege upon the condition that when the price of the land shall be fixed, notice thereof shall be sent by the Company's Land Agent, through the Postoffice, or otherwise, as may be convenient, to the residence of the party claiming the pre-emption privilege, and if the land is not purchased by the said party within sixty days from the date of such notice, the Company will be at liberty to sell the land to any other person."
(Name of applicant.)
(Postoffice address.)
When the application is received, a certificate, signed by the Agent, obligating the Company to the terms, will be sent to the claimant in the following form:
PRE-EMPTION CERTIFICATE, NO. ——.
This is to certify that ——, of —— county, State of Oregon, has this day filed in this office a pre-emption claim to (description of premises), and is hereby entitled to the first privilege of purchasing said land at the Company's valuation, (which is to be made without reference to improvements) when the same shall be placed in market, in accordance with a resolution of the Board of Directors of said Company, adopted May 26, A. D. 1871.
When the price of the above described land is fixed, notice thereof will be sent to the party to whom this Certificate is issued, and if the land is not purchased by the said party as the holder hereof within sixty days from the date of said notice, the Company will be at liberty to sell the land to any other person.
(Signed)
Land Agent of the E. & O. Land Co.
The lands will be apprised by a competent, disinterested party, under oath, at their actual present value—no fancy or prospective price on the basis of similar lands in the vicinity, and when appraisement is made they will be sold in quantity not exceeding one hundred and sixty acres to one person, payable in five equal annual instalments, with interest from date of contract, at ten per cent per annum, principal and interest payable in United States Legal Tender Notes. Warranty deeds given after United States Patent issues, upon payment in full.
Blank forms of application furnished upon request.

Trochu on Eugenie.

THE EMPRESS [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] EUGENIE [illegible]

[illegible] letter says:

[illegible] has once more [illegible] before the public [illegible] He has published [illegible] against the Figaro, preferring his attack upon all his enemies, the [illegible] part [illegible]

What [illegible] says with regard to himself will be [illegible] less importance [illegible] interest than what he says with regard to the [illegible] and the Empress [illegible] the French. With regard to the latter he writes:

They have quoted a letter of the Empress, a letter inspired by anger and hatred. [illegible] the Empress with [illegible] has been my personal enemy for fifteen years. She has always considered and pointed me out, without ever verifying this [illegible] of her court, as a representative of the Orleans Princes, for whom I am full of respectful regard, but to whom I have not the honor of being known, whom I have never seen, and whose political interests are in no way represented by me. The publication of this letter, signed "Eugenie," was preceded by another only less violent.

The Empress showed unreasonable irritation in her letters, which I must consider as authentic, since they are referred to by her friends. This irritation has led her to outrage my character and, besides, to make the statement that "the 4th of September had released the [illegible] Florence and their governments from the engagements which they had entered into." These governments have lately established clearly that they had made no engagements of any kind with France when she declared war against Prussia. In speaking of her I will do so with all frankness. I have always had for the Empress, as woman and mother—well aware of her sentiments for me—a feeling of true respect. Although with her vain idea of restoring the Latin races, she brought about the Franco-Spanish invasion of Mexico, which discredited the empire and prepared its ruin, although she desired the war of 1870, from which the Emperor instinctively drew back—although she has contributed to establish and generalize in our country the habits of luxury and the rage for "appearances" which have so deeply tainted public morals—although for these reasons I have doubts as to her soundness of mind—I have looked upon the Empress as a resolute character, capable of sacrifices; and I retain this opinion in spite of the unheard of violence of her proceedings and letters. With regard to these last, I still think that she respected herself less in writing them and communicating them to journals than I myself have always respected her.

The Next Pope.

SECRET BULL OF PIUS IX. CONCERNING THE ELECTION OF HIS SUCCESSOR—AN EFFORT TO CIRCUMVENT PRUSSIA AND ITALY.

[Correspondence of the N. Y. Herald.]

The Pope has taken a most important step. He has, it is believed, signed a bull directing what is to be done at the election of his successor, in the event of the European Governments interfering with the conclave. It is known that formerly, when relations of mutual protection and alliance existed between the Papal See and European sovereigns, the latter were allowed to exercise veto power, under certain conditions, against the election of any objectionable candidate; but, under existing circumstances, it would seem only decent that these Governments, having abandoned the Pope in his necessity, should let him alone. The German government, however, manifests a disposition, while prosecuting the Church in its own dominions with the one hand, to interfere at Rome with the other. The North German Gazette, for instance, speaking, no doubt, by inspiration from high quarters, in an article on the election of the next Pope, points out "that the interests and duties of Governments at Papal elections have increased since the ancient independence of the bishops has been destroyed, and the Pope himself has acquired the power to assume the exercise of episcopal rights in every diocese. Before Governments permit the exercise of such rights over their subjects they must ask themselves whether the election of the Pope and his personal character afford the guarantees which they are entitled and bound to demand against the abuse of such arbitrary power." The reported bull is said to provide means by which any such interference as is here hinted at shall be made inefficacious. But it is not to be forgotten that the Italian Government is in a position to do violence toward the conclave, if need be, in order to compel the election of a Pope who will make terms with Italy, or to prevent the election of any at all. The latter event is freely spoken of by the Italian Radicals, who assert that with the death of Pius IX. the Papacy shall die.

The Supporters of Greeley.

[From the Stockton Independent.]

The Dolly Varden party, made up of renegade Republicans and demoralized Democrats, who are now running the ex-editor of the New York Tribune for the Presidency, claim that they are actuated by principle and a desire for an honest (?) administration. The prime movers in placing Greeley in nomination were the Blair family, the noted political brokers of the country, whose sole political principles for the last ten years have consisted only in devising means to secure fat offices for themselves. They have in that time been connected with all political parties and have retained the confidence of none, and are universally looked upon as mere place hunters and demagogues of the most unreliable character. Through the manipulation of these tricksters the honest element of the Cincinnati Convention were deceived, and the revenue "reformers, who were the original leaders of the movement, were entirely ignored in the deliberations of that body.

Greeley is also supported by Trumbull who, failing to secure an appointment from Grant for a hoodlum son, turned against the party and formed an alliance with his former political enemies. Schurz supports Greeley under protest, because he was Chairman of the Convention which nominated him. The ex-Federal officers who have been removed during Grant's Administration, for malfeasance in office or inefficiency, support Greeley. The inveterate office-seekers, who have been disappointed in their aspirations, and [illegible] The Democratic politicians everywhere who have for twelve years been hoping for positions from a Democratic victory, now support Greeley. The Tammany ring, including Tweed, Hall, and all the rest of that band of thieves, now support Greeley. And they all claim that they are actuated by principle and a desire to effect a reform in the administration of the National Government. It is not strange that under such circumstances leading journals like the New York Evening Post and the New York Nation, which have not heretofore been friendly to Grant, now advise their readers to support him rather than to allow the Government to pass into the hands of the combination of unprincipled men who are supporting Greeley.

The Jacksonville Sentinel reports heavy fires in the timber on Applegate Creek and in the mountains north of Rogue river.

The bark Atlanta from San Francisco is now in the river. She was passed by the [illegible] Thompson yesterday some distance above Astoria, in tow of the tug Varuna.

The bark Edward James, from Hongkong, will be due at this port about the middle of next month. This vessel has [illegible] tons of freight and 200 passengers.

[illegible] vessels [illegible] due at this port.

The steamer [illegible] arrived at San Francisco Tuesday evening.

The bark [illegible] will complete [illegible] Tuesday morning [illegible]

The steamship [illegible] will be dispatched to Sitka, August 1st; steamship Californian for Puget Sound July 27th; steamer [illegible] for San Francisco, July 28th.

The steamship [illegible] from San Francisco is due to-night.

It is estimated that forty thousand cases Salmon, each case consisting of two 1 lb 2 lb cans, will be packed on the Columbia river this season. Vast quantities besides will be packed in barrels, half barrels and kits. We learn that the factory of Bilee & Holliday, Jr., of Oregon City is filling an order for [illegible] and kegs and kits for packing Salmon.

Attention has been [illegible] called to the fact that Wheat cut by headers is [illegible] to Wheat harvested in the ordinary way. In California a difference is made in the market price of such Wheat and Flour, and the same result will soon be witnessed here.

Latest mail advices from San Francisco report [illegible] abundance of [illegible] funds in that market. Rates are unchanged, Savings Banks requiring 10 per cent and others 12 and 15 according to the nature of security. [illegible] rates on Wheat for distant markets. It is estimated that the value of the agricultural products of California this year will reach one hundred million dollars.

Domestic Produce.

WHEAT—It is believed that quotations in San Francisco will settle down as low as $1 50 per cental. Market here shows no movement. We see nothing to change our former views in regard to prices.

FLOUR—There is considerable local trade. Puget Sound is taking Flour quite freely. No changes to note in quotations.

CITY ADVERTISEMENTS.

Ordinance No. 1189.

AN ORDINANCE TO PROVIDE FOR THE TIME and manner of improving that part of North Second street lying between E and G streets.

The city of Portland does ordain as follows:

Section 1. The proposed improvement of that part of North Second street lying between E. and G streets, shall be completed on or before the 1st day of October, 1872.

Section 2. The surface of the street shall be cleared of all planks, timbers, or other obstacles and perishable materials (sidewalks, and crosswalks of the proper width and grade excepted.) If the obstructions are not removed by the owners of the adjacent lots within three days from the service of notice by the Street Commissioner, they shall be removed by and become the property of the contractor.

Section 3. The improvement shall consist of grading to the established grade.

Section 4. The work to be done, and materials furnished shall correspond with the provisions of, and under the restrictions contained in Sections 8, of Ordinance No. 793, entitled "An Ordinance in relation to the improvement of streets."

Section 5. The contractor shall take entire charge of the work during its progress, and shall be responsible for any loss or accident, resulting from carelessness or neglect.

Section 6. The Committee on Streets and Public Property are hereby authorized to advertise for proposals, receive bids and enter into contract with the lowest responsible bidder or bidders for the improvement specified in this Ordinance.

Section 7. The improvement shall be completed to the satisfaction of the Committee on Streets and Public Property, and the Street Commissioner.

Passed the Common Council July 17, 1872.

W. S. CALDWELL,
Auditor and Clerk.

Approved July 19, 1872.

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN PLATFORM

ADOPTED BY THE NATIONAL CONVENTION [illegible] PHILADELPHIA, JUNE 5-6, 1872.

The Republican Party of the United States assembled in National Convention in [illegible] Philadelphia on the [illegible] day of June, 1872, again declares its faith, appeals to its history, and announces its position upon the questions before the country:

1. During the eleven years of its supremacy it has accepted with grand courage the solemn duties of the time. It suppressed a gigantic rebellion, emancipated four millions of slaves, decreed the equal citizenship of all, and established universal suffrage. Exhibiting unparalleled magnanimity, it criminally punished no man for political offenses, and warmly welcomed all who proved loyalty by obeying the laws and dealing justly with their neighbors. It has steadily decreased with firm hand the resultant disorders of a great war, and initiated a wise and humane policy toward the Indians. The Pacific railroad and similar vast enterprises have been generously aided and successfully conducted, the public lands freely given to actual settlers, immigration protected and encouraged, and a full acknowledgment of the naturalized citizens' rights secured from European powers. In the name of National currency [illegible] has been provided, repudiation frowned down, the national credit sustained under the most extraordinary burdens, and new bonds negotiated at lower rates. The revenues have been carefully collected and honestly applied. Despite the annual large reductions of the rates of taxation, the public debt has been reduced during General Grant's Presidency at the rate of $100,000,000 per year. A great financial crisis has been avoided, and peace and plenty prevail throughout the land. Menacing foreign difficulties have been peacefully and honorably compromised, and the honor and power of the Nation kept in high respect throughout the world. This glorious record of the past is the party's best pledge for the future, and we believe that the people will not entrust the Government to any party or combination of men composed chiefly of those who have resisted every step in this beneficial progress.

2. Complete liberty and exact equality in the enjoyment of all civil, political and public rights should be established and effectually maintained throughout the Union by efficient and appropriate State and Federal legislation. Neither the law nor its administration should admit of any discrimination in respect of citizens by reason of race, creed, color, or previous condition of servitude.

3. The recent amendments to the National Constitution should be cordially sustained because they are right, not merely tolerated because they are law, and should be carried out according to their spirit by appropriate legislation, the enforcement of which can safely be trusted only to the party that secured those amendments.

4. The National Government seeks to maintain an honorable peace with all nations, protecting its citizens everywhere, and sympathizing with all peoples who strive for greater liberty.

5. Any system of civil service under which the subordinate positions of the Government are considered rewards for mere party zeal, is fatally demoralizing, and we therefore favor a reform of the system by laws which shall abolish the evils of patronage and make honesty, efficiency and fidelity the essential qualifications for public position, without practically creating a life tenure of office.

6. We are opposed to further grants of public lands to corporations and monopolies, and demand that the National domain be set apart for free homes for the people.

7. The annual revenue, after paying current debts, should furnish a moderate balance for the reduction of the principal of the public debt; and revenue, except so much as may be derived from a tax on tobacco and liquors, to be raised by duties on importations, the details of which should be so adjusted as to aid in securing remunerative wages to laborers, and promote the industries, prosperity and growth of the whole country.

8. We hold in undying honor the soldiers and sailors whose valor saved the Union. Their pensions are a sacred debt of the nation, and the widows and orphans of those who died for their country are entitled to the care of a generous and grateful people. We favor such additional legislation as will extend the bounty of the Government to all our soldiers and sailors who were honorably discharged, and who in the line of duty became disabled, without regard to length of service or the cause of such discharge.

9. The doctrine of Great Britain and other European powers concerning allegiance, "once a subject always a subject," having at last, through the efforts of the Republican party, been abandoned, and the American idea of the right of an individual to transfer his allegiance having been accepted by European nations, it is the duty of our Government to guard with jealous care the rights of adopted citizens against the assumption of unauthorized claims by their former Governments, and we urge a continued and careful encouragement and protection to voluntary emigration.

10. The franking privilege ought to be abolished and a way prepared for reductions in the rates of postage.

11. Among the questions which press for attention is that which concerns the relations of capital and labor, and the Republican party recognize the duty of shaping legislation so as to secure a full protection and ample field for capital, and for labor which creates capital, the largest opportunities and a just share of the mutual profits of these two great servants of civilization.

12. We hold that Congress and the President have only fulfilled an imperative duty in their measures for the suppression of violent and treasonable organizations in certain lately rebellious regions and for the protection of the ballot, and therefore they are entitled to the thanks of the Nation.

13. We denounce the repudiation of public debts, in any form or disguise, as a national crime. We witness with pride the reduction of the principal of that debt, and of the rates of interest upon the balance, and confidently expect that our excellent national currency will be perfected by a speedy resumption to specie payment.

14. The Republican party is mindful of its obligations to the loyal women of America for their noble devotion to the cause of freedom; their admission to wider fields of usefulness is received with satisfaction, and the honest demands of any class of citizens for additional rights should be treated with respectful consideration.

15. We heartily approve of the action of Congress in extending amnesty to those engaged in the late rebellion, and rejoice in the growth of peace and fraternal feeling throughout the land.

16. The Republican party propose to respect all rights reserved by the people to themselves, as carefully as the powers delegated by them to the State and Federal Governments. It disapproves of resorting to unconstitutional laws for the purpose of removing evils by the interference with rights not surrendered by the people to either the State or National Government.

17. It is the duty of the General Government to adopt such measures as will tend to encourage American commerce and ship building.

18. We believe that the modest patriotism, the earnest purpose, sound judgment, practical wisdom, incorruptible integrity and illustrious services of U. S. Grant have commended him to the heart of the American people, and with him at our head we start to-day upon a new march to victory.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

623 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhoea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases of years standing and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

DR. GIBBON has the pleasure of announcing that he has returned from visiting the principal Hospitals of Europe, and resumed practice at his Dispensary, 623 Kearney street, corner of Commercial, San Francisco, where his patients and those requiring his services may find him.

The Doctor has spared neither time nor money in seeking out new remedies, and has returned with increased facilities for the alleviation of human suffering.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life destroying maladies—see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to DR GIBBON, a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate case, without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public, assuming the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN.

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions. By inclosing Ten Dollars coin, in registered letter through the Postoffice or through Wells, Fargo & Co., a package of medicine will be forwarded to any part of the Union.

All communications strictly confidential.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who, with bogus sworn-to certificates, dupe the unwary. Some of the self-styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. The only way to avoid imposition is to make inquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets; for, as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended patients' letters, etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his offices of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 623 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco. Post Office Box 1,957.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 1,957 ON THE LETTER.

Consultations FREE.

☞ Correspondents will please inform DR. GIBBON that they read his advertisement in the Daily Oregonian.
